

Berry, David P.

From: Flynn, Terence F.
Sent: Thursday, July 28, 2011 3:37 PM
To: Peter Schaumber; Kane, Robert F.
Subject: RE: Important Refresher

the one i recall was the potato chip maker case. shut down and sold off machinery and go wanted reopening i believe. i remember the flat dog movie case in mexico, which involved relocating filming.

From: Peter Schaumber [peter@schaumber.com]
Sent: Thursday, July 28, 2011 3:28 PM
To: Flynn, Terence F.; Kane, Robert F.
Subject: Important Refresher

I am on Kuldow tonight at 7:40 debating Andy Stern on the proposed Boeing legislation.

I don't recall many cases over my nearly 8 years dealing with unlawful transfers, relocations and the like.

There was one case of an employer moving to Mexico. Did you attach the owner's property here? Was there anything we could do?

Thanks.

peter@schaumber.com<mailto:peter@schaumber.com>

202 669 9777 - c

202 363 2900 - t

540 364 6494 - VA