On March 7, 2012, Margery Lieber, Deputy Associate General Counsel, Division of Enforcement Litigation, provided the following information to David Berry, Inspector General.

Having reviewed the document "MEMO TO THE BOARD.PDF" that was attached to the e-mail message sent by Terence Flynn to Peter Schaumber, Ms. Lieber stated that the memorandum in the file dated February 25, 2011, contains information that the NLRB would normally consider to be subject to the deliberative or attorney client privilege.
