All—

I am forwarding the attached a Complaint for Declaratory and Injunctive Relief regarding the Final Rule—Posting of Employee Rights. The complaint was filed jointly on 9/16/11 in the US Dist Ct in DC by the Right to Work Legal Defense and Education Foundation and the National Federation of Independent Business.

*LES HELTZER
EXECUTIVE SECRETARY
NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD*

Subject: second complaint on the notice posting rule

Attached, please find the second complaint, this one by both Right to Work and the National Federation of Independent Business. The first claim for relief is largely identical to the NAM complaint (with the exception that it references Section 8(c), but the second claim adds a First Amendment allegation.)

[REDACTED] and I are considering whether to file a motion for consolidation of the two cases. It should not be opposed, b/c the plaintiffs in this second case listed the NAM as a related case in the other attachment. Also, both cases have been assigned to Judge Berman.

Subject: RE: NAM complaint filed, docketed

PS Has anyone heard the identity of the second plaintiff rumored to be filing a challenge on the notice posting rule, or where it might be filed?

I was able to download a copy of the 136-page complaint from PACER, but every time I have tried to attach it to an email, my system has crashed. Not sure if this is because the file is too big, or if this is an issue with our network. I am reading the complaint now.
